During the week of January 4 through the 13th students will learn about the work of Martin Luther King Jr. Each grade will have an opportunity to focus on various quotes and projects that will be showcased on January 14. Discussion of MLK's dream and intentional community work using a Afrocentric cultural lens with cultural bearers from the Black Community will take place on January 14, 2022.

Learning Centers

The afternoon offers MLK's discussion for Fuente students and staff from local elders and leaders that will take place at 10:30-12:25.

Favorite quote:

"I have a dream that one day little black boys and girls will be holding hands with little white boys and girls. My four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."
